health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN' IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881.
Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my back and great soreness on my breast, with aching pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by various physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitter, and have taken one drachm and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I am gaining a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the King of Medicines.

JOHN K. ALLENDER.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.

The mines in Wood River and Sawtooth Districts of Idaho, will, it is estimated, yield $3,000,000 in bullion during the present year, which is double the yield of the Territory of Idaho three years ago, when these districts were unknown. When it first saw light it weighed eight ounces. Its face is about the size of a horse chestnut. The mother's wedding ring was pulled over its foot up to the knee. Three such babes could play hide and seek in a cigar box. It is in good health.

Melvins stories have been told about the size of snakes. There is a well authenticated case of a rattlesnake being killed near Ballou's Ferry, on the Sabine river, Texas, some forty years ago, that was forty feet long. It had thirty-two rattles, and there was inside of it a turkey, a fox and a squirrel all full grown. It was shot by one of Ballou's negroes while out hunting, and by the time he had taken his master out to the spot the buzzards had torn the skin so badly it was not worth preserving.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Several States have laws by which in case of death from accident on a railroad, the heirs of the deceased cannot recover damages beyond $5,000, while for injuries through accident there is no specified limit. This has caused an exchange to say: "Jay Gould's family could have recovered $5,000 had he been killed on Mr. Vanderbilt's road at Rochester the other day. Had he been injured so as to render him unable to attend to his business, a writer curiously and somewhat humorously remarks, 'he could have recovered damages based on his earning capacity.' In the last twenty years he has earned $60,000, or $3,000,000 a year; and a verdict based upon this rate for the rest of his life would not him perhaps some $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 more. This would have knocked a big hole into Mr. Vanderbilt's income."

The Carson Appeal thinks the beginning of a libel suit against the Enterprise by George J. Reek of Eureka, the slayer of Anderson, is a very foolish piece of business on the part of Reek. The Enterprise has only done what is clearly within the province of a public journal in calling for a more rigid investigation of the circumstances connected with the killing of Anderson. It dissected the evidence with as much care and ability as a lawyer would have exhibited, and arrived at a conclusion shared by nearly every one who has carefully considered the matter, that the case has been but partially examined into, and that the interests of justice demand a more proper investigation.

It is fashionable, or popular, at this time to decry against the transportation charges of railroad companies, says the Sacramento Bee, in the mountains as well as on the plains. In portions of the State where there are no railroads, the people are paying from three to four cents per pound for freight hauled on wagons, and would hail with delight an opportunity to have the same brought to them at the top railroad rates. They wouldn't even mind a little discrimination against themselves.

Dan Lyons, ex-Sheriff Hanks, ex-Senator Gibson of Storey; Messrs. Evans and Bragg of Washoe; ex-Senator King of Lyon; Chauncey Note-ware of Douglas and others, want to be Warden of the State Prison. Other aspirants will probably put in claims before the Legislature meets.

This is the season of the year when the agricultural papers are hard at work advising farmers not to leave their $500 reapers out in the snow all winter. No farmer could get along without an agricultural paper.

There is a cow in Pennsylvania that goes limping through life with a wooden leg. What a bonanza the owner would have if he could turn that leg into a pump and make the owner stand in a stream of water while he was milking.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

A Fateful Scene at a Fire.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 21. A fire occurred this morning in the Calendar building, a brick structure situated between Sabine and Cove streets, which resulted in serious loss of life. The building is four stories high and occupied mostly by jewelry shops. The fire originated in the middle of the building on the third floor, and was caused by the ignition of a 10 gallon can of naphtha. The room was filled with light, inflammable clothes, and was next to a stairway, and before a word of warning could be given by the stairs was cut off by the flames. On the fourth floor were 40 operatives, equally divided as to sex. When the flames swept up through the floor the employees made a rush for the windows. There was no fire escape on the building. Just across an alley-way, about 15 feet wide, at the end of the Calendar building, was a two-story wooden structure. The help rushed for the end of the building fronting on this alley. Then a panic ensued. The roof of the wooden building was about twenty feet below the window-sills where the girls were congregated. Persons in the rear crowded and pushed those in the act of jumping, and many fell short. Others were injured by being jumped upon after they reached the roof. The dead are Emma Gassett, aged 23, and Bessie Cobb. Both struck the ground between the two buildings and died in a few minutes. The injured are Mary McSorley, who jumped from the window and fell on a picket fence, and was terribly injured and cannot survive; Mary Harley, Emma Matthewson Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Cuddy—all young women and all probably fatally wounded. Some were carried to their homes and others carried to the Rhode Island hospital in ambulances. Thomas Mann fell short of the two-story building. He bounded against it and fell to the ground. His injuries are one arm and leg broken. A man named Smith fell to the ground and was hurt. Mary Davis jumped from the roof and had a leg broken. George Grant of the firm of Joseph Grant & Co., jewelers, jumped from the fourth-floor window to the roof of the wooden building and had a leg broken. George Clarke, employed by Joseph Grant & Co., saw the fire and tried in vain to extinguish the flames, and failing in it, had to run for his life. He hung from a telephone wire until the fire department arrived. A ladder was raised to him but it proved to be five feet too short. A fireman mounted to the top and caught the workman in his arms. The loss on the building and stock is $100,000.

Making a State for '84.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20. A Tribune Omaha special says Senator Grover of Oregon, who passed through this city Friday, en route for Washington, told a reporter that the Democrats on the Pacific coast were gratified over the success of their party in the East, and being able to supplement it with a Democratic majority in California. While the wave came too late to reach Oregon, the Democrats there were not discouraged. Politicians in California and Oregon already speak of nominating Governor-elect Cleveland of New York for the Presidency in 1884, if he should develop in his new field administrative qualities like those which characterized his administration of the city of Buffalo, which quality constitutes the present need of the people. In the event of Cleveland's nomination Governor Stoneman of California will be the favorite for Vice President. Justice Field, however, has many friends and is a candidate for President.

Changes in the Mississippi.

VICKSBURG, Nov. 21. The Levee Commission has examined the river and found an extraordinary change in its course so as to leave Vicksburg practically three miles inland opposite the delta. The river has washed out the buttress work and piling put down by the city in an attempt to control the river and prevent a cut-off. Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars were expended in this work. A million of money has been expended at other points on the river, with a view of narrowing and deepening the channel to improve navigation.

Blaine's South American Policy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. There has been a great deal of surmising as to the real cause of General Pierola's presence here at this time. It is now said, and apparently on the best authority, that he has a mission which is to induce this country to interfere positively and actively in the affairs of Chili and Peru, for the purpose of bringing about an adjustment of differences between the two countries that will be honorable to both and especially beneficial to Peru. In this work, it is said, General Pierola will have the help and influence of Blaine. It is known that Pierola is in constant communication with Blaine, and it is reported that he had a conference with him to-day lasting nearly three hours. Of course, nothing of the character of the conference has reached the public. In diplomatic circles, however, it is said that Blaine will have introduced at the approaching session of Congress and undertake to have passed a resolution instructing the Secretary of State to adopt a more vigorous South American policy, such as will tend to bring to a speedy termination the unfortunate and ruinous condition of affairs now existing between Peru and Chili. Pierola is reported as saying that President Garfield and his administration favored lending a helping hand to Peru, and he cannot see why the present administration should hesitate about adopting some such policy. It is certain that Blaine has strong friends in both the Senate and House who are in sympathy with him in this South American business and who are willing to act in this matter under his direction and advice.

Union Pacific Bonds.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.

The Tribune says: Arnold Leo, broker, has served notice on the officers and directors of the Union Pacific Railroad Company and Blake Brothers & Co., a banking firm with whom the company recently concluded its transactions for the placing of its new issue of collateral trust bonds, saying he had been advised that the issue was illegal and that he would take legal steps to prevent it. Sidney Dillon, President of the Union Pacific Company, said last evening that he had received no notice from Leo. The sale of bonds, he said, was completed last week. The thing is accomplished, and what steps can be taken to prevent something already done.

Railroad strategy.

OSSWEGO, Nov. 21.

It is rumored that the Grand Trunk Railroad of Canada is negotiating for a lease of the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railroad. Should this be made, a strong combination would at once be formed between the Grand Trunk, its great western divisions, the Ogdensburg & Lake Champlain and Vermont Central roads in opposition to Vanderbilt's lines, which would enable the former to control the freight and passenger traffic of the New England States.

Fires in a Coal Mine.

HARRISBURG, PA., Nov. 21.

A fire is raging in the Lykens mine. John Kreely, fire boss, Geo Bainbridge and Oscar Cook narrowly escaped suffocation. All efforts to check the flames are futile. Fire has broken out 80 yards further down the slope. If the air should change and force the flames, which are now coming up, back into the mine, there is danger of driving the fire to the Lykens Valley mill. Over 1,500 men and boys are thrown out of employment.

Lucky Young Ones.

BOSTON, Nov. 21.

Thomas Loeman, an Australian banker, who was reported to have left $2,000,000 to three children of the same name in this city, is not dead. He has signified an intention of leaving the children at least four million dollars when he dies, and will provide for their education in the meantime.

IN THE WRONG BUNK.

The Mother of Four Children Elopes with an Opium Fiend.

Last Wednesday a young man and lady arrived in Truckee and registered at the Truckee Hotel as F. Freeman and wife. Saturday a telegraphic dispatch was received by police officer Reed from Oakland to arrest on suspicion a certain man and woman, the description of them answering to that of Freeman and his companion. They were accordingly taken into custody and a message sent to the police of Oakland that the arrest had been made. Yesterday the alleged Mrs. Freeman's real husband, J. Glockler, arrived in town with the youngest child and identified the woman. Endeavors were made by him amid tears for reconciliation, the result being that the couple returned to their home in Oakland.

THE STORY OF THE EloPEMENT.

It is about as follows: Freeman, whose real name is Frank Francis, while living for a short time with his parents in Oakland, became infatuated with Mrs. Glockler, who is the mother of four children, the oldest being but 13 years of age. The infatuation apparently became mutual, since the wife disregarded the needs of her husband and young family, ran away one night with Francis, and for a time resided with him in a house of prostitution in San Francisco. Here, their funds running low, Mrs. Glockler drew $480 from the bank account of her husband, and started on the east-bound train with her paramour. At Colfax a temporary stop was made and a letter written by Francis to one of his friends. This letter fell into the hands of the Oakland officers, who were by it put upon the right track. At Truckee they had taken up quarters in

A HOUSE OF ILL FAME.

Mrs. Glockler is about 35 years of age and very pretty. Her husband is spoken of as a man of high standing. For years he has occupied a prominent position in one of the leading firms of Oakland. Freeman is a young man 24 years of age, and addicted to smoking opium. He has been twice arrested on criminal charges, and bears several aliases to his name. Mrs. Glockler is supposed by some to be insane, but the prevailing opinion seems to be that she is addicted to the habit of opium smoking, and to gratify her appetite she took the unfortunate step.

Thirty per cent of members on the muster roll will hunt the bullseye. The team will be selected at the range Sunday morning, Several members of the company are very excellent shots, and if all the members take the interest in the matter that they should, the Reno Guard team will stand a good chance of winning the regimental medal. Let every individual member of the company clean up his rifle, go to the range Sunday morning, and show the older companies in the regiment that the Reno Guard are camping on their trail.

A BANKER IN LIMBO.

How a Greenville Banker Managed to Defraud Depositors.

It is reported here that the Greenville bank has closed its doors. The report is that E. Prowattian, the manager of the bank, has been sending all the receipts to his brother in New York and not remitting anything to their correspondents in San Francisco. The bank has been checking on the banking firm of Bellco & Co., San Francisco, and the later part of last week several sight drafts on that firm were returned protested, when one of the resident partners in the Greenville bank becoming suspicious examined into the condition of the concern and found the vaults empty. He caused the arrest of E. Prowattian, who after being taken into custody, fearing the depositors would take his life, induced the officer to take him to a place of safety. The two started for Susanville on foot and Prowattian managed to escape from the officer and was making for Reno when Frank Williams, a constable from Greenville, effected his arrest while he was riding on the wagon with Jerry Tyler, as stated in the GAZETTE yesterday. Prowattian has been taken back to the county seat of Plumas county, where his crookedness will be inquired into by the proper authorities.

THE CELESTIAL SQUEEZE.

They were looking at the comet, and as he was fresh from college he called her attention to the beautiful arc made by the luminous 40,000,000 to 50,000,000 miles of tail. "But what is an arc, dear?" she inquired with a simplicity of ignorance which was so angelic that he answered with an illustration in the curvature of his right arm which made the whalebone crackle, and when it was all over she said that arcs were just too killing for anything.

THE RED MAN'S REVENGE.

Indian Bob, a Honey Lake Indian well known in Reno, is in jail at Susanville, charged with killing an Indian doctor who boasted that he had poisoned Bob's two children a short time ago while pretending to doctor them, and that two or three years ago he disposed of Bob's mother in the same manner. The poisoner is a Pitt River Piute, while Bob is a Washoe, and considered quite a respectable Indian.

HOLIDAY DANCES.

The Reno Guard decided last night to give a social hop at their Armory on Thanksgiving night. They also decided to give a grand dress ball on New Year's night. A committee of arrangements was appointed and the public can rest assured that both parties will be very pleasant.
